

ACTIVITY DISCLOSURE SUMMARY

In accordance with the disclosure policy of the Nursing Continuing Education Council as well as standards set forth by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation, continuing nursing education activity director(s), planning committee member(s), speaker(s), author(s) or anyone in a position to control the content have been asked to disclose any *financial relationship they have to companies producing pharmaceuticals, medical equipment, prostheses, etc. that might be germane to the content of their lectures, or companies who are supporting this program. Such disclosure is not intended to suggest or condone bias in any presentation, but is elicited to provide registrants with information that might be of potential importance to their evaluation of a given activity.

Disclosure is also to be made if off-label uses of products are to be discussed.

The activity director(s), planning committee member(s), speaker(s), author(s) or anyone in a position to control the content for Nursing Grand Rounds have reported NO financial interest or relationship* with various companies or discussion of off-label uses. There were no individuals in a position to control the content that refused to disclose.

Display of commercial products in conjunction with Continuing Nursing Education (CNE) activities does not imply endorsement of the product/service by the American Nurses Credentialing Center (ANCC), the Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center (DHMC) Center for Continuing Education in the Health Sciences (CCEHS), or the Nursing Continuing Education Council (NCEC).

 A "financial interest or relationship" refers to an equity position, receipt of royalties, consultantship, funding by a research grant, receiving honoraria for educational services elsewhere, or to any other relationship to a company that provides sufficient reason for disclosure, in keeping with the spirit of the stated policy.*
